RE: Speaking invitation
University Union
University of Virginia
Charlottesville, Virginia
Convenient Date

Co-Chairmen of the Speakers Committee of the University Union, David Gallagher and Mark Goodin, have invited you to address a program sponsored by the Union at the University of Virginia on a convenient date. The suggested format is 30 minutes of remarks on a topic of your choice followed by 30 minutes of questions and answers. You could expect an audience of 500 - 1000 graduates, undergraduates, and faculty. The media would cover the event.

The University Union, an arm of the University, sponsors all cultural activities at the school. Their speakers' program provides students with the opportunity to hear prominent men and women discuss national and international issues. Previous speakers have included former President Jimmy Carter, Gloria Steinem and Jesse Jackson.

Since you spoke at the University of Virginia Law School and spent several days on campus in October 1986, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

Dear Mr. Goodin:

Thank you for inviting me to be part of the University Union speakers' program at the University of Virginia. Although it would please me very much to speak again at the University, I cannot make a commitment at this time and so must decline. I certainly enjoyed my visit to the campus in 1986 when I addressed the Law School.

Best wishes for a successful program.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Mr. Webster:

The Speakers Committee of University Union of the University of Virginia programs a wide range of prominent figures who offer the student body educational experiences outside the classroom. Our goal is to provide the University with a variety of speakers who can use their personal knowledge and experience to enhance that of the students.

In light of this purpose, we would like to invite you to speak at the University. With the national events of the past year, we believe you could offer our community the information and perspective that it needs to fully understand recent issues. We would, of course, cover all expenses and provide an appropriate honorarium.

As your schedule is undoubtedly busy, we appreciate your time in consideration of this invitation. We look forward to hearing from you, and please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or comments. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

J. David Gallagher
